Miss Sarah Leverette,
Library, School of Law,
University of South Carolina,
Columbia, S.C.

Dear Sarah:

The ticket applications for next fall's football games have just arrived. I note that U. of N.C. plays U. of S.C. at Columbia on Nov. 18th. That fixes the date of our fall meeting, doesn't it? If so, make reservations now for a block of tickets in a good location. If you want the money in advance, drop me a card as to the amount; we are still planning for Janie to go with me if we can arrange for the girls to stay here with friends.

Tell "Little Tex" that I received the file of the Secretary's materials, but have been too busy to open it. Thank her for getting this material to me.

We still know nothing as to Elizabeth's successor at Wake Forest. The Dean wrote to Miles Price, among others, and I urged him to write Francis Farmer at U. of Va. in an effort to get a southerner. I hope he gets an able, congenial person.

With heaps of love to two little rebels to the south,
I am

Ever cordially,

Dillard S. Gardner
